What should represent a country?

In the news this week

The Bank of England, that designs and makes the UK's banknotes, has said that future notes will include British wildlife, such as animals or plants, instead of historical figures. At the moment, UK banknotes feature the British monarch on the front and well-known people from history on the back. However, some believe the back of banknotes should instead celebrate nature, showing animals, birds, or plants that live in the UK.

Things to talk about at home ...

- Look at a coin or banknote you have at home. What pictures or symbols can you see on it? Why might they have been chosen?
- Different countries show different things on their money, such as leaders, buildings, or wildlife. What do you feel money should say about a country?
- Imagine you could design your own coin or banknote. What picture would you include and why? Ask someone at home about what they would choose.
